

57th Annual Diocesan Convention 82nd General Convention Deputy Nominee

Clerical Order
The Rev. Dr. Rob Moses

The Rev. Moses currently serves as Rector at Christ the King (Lakeland). He earned his undergraduate degree in Economics and International Affairs from The Florida State University in 1992. After university, Robert entered seminary in South Florida, finishing his seminary work in Rome, Italy, at The Gregorian University, earning a Bachelor's and a License in Sacred Theology (with an emphasis in Biblical Studies). Robert was ordained to the priesthood in 1999 and welcomed as priest into The Episcopal Church by The Rt. Rev. John Howe in 2008.

He has served as priest in the Diocese of Central Florida since.

In ministry, Robert has been blessed to have worked in various capacities in and around Lakeland, Florida, including: All Saints' Academy (as chaplain prior to 2008), Saint David's (2008-2018), Saint Stephen's (2018-2023), and Christ the King (2024-present). Robert currently serves on the Disciplinary Board (as Clerk), the Board of Camp Wingmann, and on the Diocesan Board. While never having served as a deputy to General Convention, Robert looks forward to, with your blessing and trust, being a part of that integral process of the Church's life.
